

How Internal Projects Differ From Regular Projects

Summary

Internal projects in BuilderPal are private, team-only workspaces for non-client tasks like training or internal operations, while regular projects are designed for client-facing construction jobs with features for subcontractor collaboration and bidding.

Why it Matters?

Internal projects keep team operations secure and organized, reducing risk, while regular projects enable efficient sub bidding and sharing without full access.

Related Articles

- Internal Projects
- Workflow / Tutorial: How to Create a New Project
- Reference: Project Access Explained
- Troubleshooting / FAQ: Project Visibility Issues

Revision #3

Created 10 December 2025 20:49:33 by Gabe

Updated 22 January 2026 22:51:15 by Mikey